

GERMANS CARRY CRITICAL POINT

Take Fortified Bridgehead at Lennwada on the Dvina River

EXPECT STRONG DEFENSE

Critics Believe German Success on Dvina Would Shorten March to Petrograd

RUSS EVACUATE GRODNO

LONDON, Sept. 3.—In their official report today the Germans claim to have carried by assault the fortified bridgehead at Lennwada on the Dvina river between Friedrichstadt and Riga. This is considered for the Russians, the most critical point on their whole front, for should the Germans succeed in crossing the Dvina the Russians would be compelled to evacuate Riga and their position between Dvina and Vilna and even southwest of the latter city would be jeopardized.

Expect Stubbish Defense.
However, the Germans will not yet claim to have crossed the river, which is being defended by a reinforced army commanded by General Ruzky, who stopped the previous German advance on the Bzura river in front of Warsaw. Military critics believe the Russians will make a stubborn defense on the Dvina, the opinion being expressed that should they fall the German fleet would gain command of the Gulf of Riga, and, by landing troops at Pernau would considerably shorten the protracted march to Petrograd which is understood to be the ultimate objective of the German higher command.

In view of the importance of the battle raging along the lower Dvina the fighting elsewhere loses some of its interest. Grodno, which the Russians evacuated apparently proved an empty shell to the Germans as they captured only 400 prisoners after street fighting. To the northwest of Vilna the Russians are on the offensive and while the Germans say the Russian counter-attacks have been a complete failure it is said in Petrograd that the counter offensive seri-
flank and communications with the army of Lieutenant Von Echem.

Russ Center Still Retiring.
The Russian center still is retiring through the marshy districts. However, every day they are taking a toll of their pursuers.

The Russians also are offering resistance to the Austro-German offensive in Galicia and southeastward of Lutsk they hold a front of some fifty miles, interested by hills, woods, and rivers which afford a splendid defensive cover.

There still is some doubt as to what the Austro-Germans intend to do in the southeast military exports being divided in opinion as to whether there will be an advance on Kiev or an attempt to project a wedge between the Russian armies and Roumania which would make a serious matter for the Roumanians to refuse longer the German demands for a free passage of munitions over Roumanian railways for the Turks who are reported to be very short of shells necessary to prevent the allies conquering the Gallipoli peninsula.

Concerning the operation at the Dardanelles no official news has been received since the report last Wednesday from General Sir Ian Hamilton, commander of the British forces on the peninsula.

The continued successes of the Austro-Germans in the east leads many writers to the conclusion that the sustained bombardment of the German lines in the west means an early move by the entente allies.
The critics point to this, the thorough redistribution of the British and French armies and the shelling of Zebrugge some days ago as heralding something at least preliminary to a general offensive.

DUNNE SETS ASIDE OCTOBER 9 AS FIRE PREVENTION DAY

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Sept. 3.—In a proclamation issued today by Governor Dunne, October 9th, 1915, the anniversary of the Chicago fire is made "Fire Prevention Day," in Illinois.

The governor urges the people of the state to observe the day by a general cleaning up of rubbish, seeing to it that all public and private buildings are made as safe as possible from fire and in the study of ways and means of preventing fires and the consequent loss in property amounting to a million dollars a month.

ALLIANCE JEWISH HOLIDAY.
Springfield, Ill., Sept. 3.—Governor Dunne today directed all heads of state departments and institutions to relieve Jewish employees from duty on September 8th, 9th and 10th., and the Jewish New Year and on September 17th, 18th, the Jewish days of atonement.

LANSING REPLIES TO CARRANZA'S INQUIRY

STATES SIGNERS OF APPEAL AFFIXED NAMES IN OFFICIAL CAPACITIES

President Commends the Services Rendered by the United States Government by the Brazilian Minister at Mexico City.

Washington, Sept. 3.—General Carranza was formally notified by Secretary Lansing today that the signers of the appeal for peace in Mexico, sent by the Pan-American conference, affixed their names to the document in their official capacities as representatives of their governments.

The message did not go beyond this direct answer to the inquiry made by General Carranza after he received the appeal.

State department officials said they did not know what effect, if any, the answer would have on General Carranza's reply to the appeal.
Consult Each Diplomat.

Delay in answering the Carranza inquiry, it was learned, was caused by the fact that four of the six South and Central American diplomats were out of town. While there was no doubt here as to the official character of the conference, each diplomat was advised of the question raised and was heard from before the reply was sent.

In the appeal, sent three weeks ago, it was suggested that ten days would be considered by the conference a reasonable time in which answers might be prepared by those who received it.

President Wilson sent the following telegram today to the president of Brazil, commending the services rendered to the United States government by the Brazilian minister at Mexico City.

"As Senor Don J. M. Cardoso de Oliveira, Brazilian minister to Mexico, is about to depart from the United States for Brazil, I avail myself of the occasion to express to Your Excellency the grateful acknowledgment of myself and the people of the United States for the friendship shown and the services rendered by Your Excellency's government in permitting Senor Cardoso to take upon himself in most trying circumstances the exacting duty of representing American interests in Mexico.

"I cordially appreciate the efficient and wholehearted manner in which Senor Cardoso has served our country and I congratulate Brazil in having in her diplomatic services a representative of such eminent fitness and so agreeable a personality."

Lansing Conveys Appreciation.
Transmitting a copy of this message to Senor Cardoso, Secretary Lansing said in a letter:

"I heartily concur in the sentiment regarding you expressed by the president in the above quoted telegram and I also take great pleasure in availing myself of this opportunity to convey to you my own appreciation of your available assistance while in Mexico."

State department messages today reported quiet at Tampico, with railroad communications opened between there and San Luis Potosi.
From Eagle Pass the railroad is opened as far south as Salinas, although several bridges are out south of there. Railway officials hope to re-open the line to Torreon and Saltillo next week. From Vera Cruz came a report that bandits yesterday had blown up a freight train forty miles from there on the Mexican railway and at Zanata followers had attacked a passenger train on the Jalapa-Tecoco line two days before.

DELEGATES GATHER FOR NATIONAL CONVENTION OF FRIENDS OF PEACE

Sessions of Two Days Duration Is Scheduled to Open in Chicago Sunday.

Chicago, Sept. 3.—Delegates from various parts of the country began arriving in Chicago today to make final plans for the National convention of the Friends of Peace, which is scheduled to open session of two days duration here Sunday.

Shortly after reaching Chicago from the east John Brien Walker, president of the organization, declared false the statement attributed to Samuel Gompers to the effect that emissaries of the Friends of Peace had attempted to financially corrupt large number of representative men among union labor.

"The funds in the possession of the friends of peace right now are not enough to buy sufficient stamps for postage," Mr. Walker asserted.
"Our collections are received in small amounts and the deficiency is made up by leaders in the movement when necessary."

A letter appealing directly to labor was drawn up by Mr. Walker, inviting unionists to join in the protest against militarism.

New York, Sept. 3.—A perfect score was made today in the firing of twelve shots from the twelve-inch mortars at Fort Totten at a moving target between 5,000 and 7,000 yards distant. The moving target was a twenty foot square of canvas, representing a battleship moving diag-nally across the line of fire.

SINK BRITISH STEAMER.
London, Sept. 3.—The British steamer Churston has been sunk.
The crew was landed.

LIVESTOCK MEN TO MEET IN CHICAGO

Dunne Calls Conference to Discuss Enforcement of Quarantine

TO GATHER MONDAY

Jerrem Urges that Militia Be Called Out If Necessary to Enforce Regulations

QUARANTINE 3 TOWNSHIPS

a letter today to Governor Dunne calling his attention to "the alarming spread of foot and mouth disease in Illinois," T. W. Jerrem, president of the Chicago Livestock exchange urged that if necessary the militia be called out to enforce quarantine regulations.

Impressed by the letter Governor Dunne summoned Dr. O. E. Dyson state veterinarian, to his office and following a long conference this morning it was announced that the governor would invite representatives live stock men of Illinois to a conference with members of the state live stock board, Dr. Dyson and, perhaps, the governor himself.

To Meet in Chicago.
The meeting is to be held in Chicago, at a downtown hotel, Monday morning.

In his letter to the governor Mr.
Jerrem pointed out that there are now 29 sources of foot and mouth infection in McDonough county. Later Dr. Dyson stated that there are about ninety sources of infection in Illinois at present.

Three townships in Lee county were placed in close quarantine yesterday because of new outbreaks.
They were East Grove, May and Sublet townships.

SEND CALL TO PRAYER TO EVERY INDIVIDUAL IN THE COUNTRY

Laymen's Missionary Movement Sends Call in Preparation for A Series of Conventions.

Chicago, Sept. 3.—A call to prayer addressed to every individual in the country and carrying the words:
"Pray! Pray without ceasing!" was sent out today by the laymen's missionary movement of the United States and Canada in preparation for a series of conventions, the first of which will be held in Chicago October 14th to 17th.

The movement formed for the purpose of spreading the doctrine of brotherhood and teaching the responsibility of America to the world for Christian service will be participated in by laymen's organizations in all parts of the country. It is designed to be a nation wide campaign for the spread of the gospel during which seventy five conventions will be held in various cities, culminating in a National missionary congress in Washington, D. C., April 26th to 30th, 1916.

The denominations entered in the movement this year are: American Friends, Reformed, Presbyterians, Central, aggregation, pentecostal, Baptist Convention (Southern), Christian church, Congregational church, Disciples of Christ, Evangelical Synod of North America, Lutheran church, Methodist Episcopal church, Protestant Episcopal church, Reformed church, United Brethren in Christ and the United Presbyterian.

PRESIDENT WILSON TO REMAIN IN WASHINGTON

GIVES UP ALL PLANS FOR RETURN-ING TO CORNHIS THIS YEAR

Executive Will Continue to Get All Information Obtainable Regarding Attitude Toward Peace of the Nations at War.

Washington, Sept. 3.—Announcement was made tonight that President Wilson has given up all plans for returning this year to his summer home at Cornish, N. H. It was said that he considers his vacation over and will remain in Washington to be in touch with the European and Mexican situation and prepare for the next session of congress.

The president will continue to get all information obtainable through American diplomatic officers abroad regarding the attitude toward peace of the nations at war.

Leading Catholics, usually well informed regarding affairs at the vatican, expressed belief that the financial condition of the principal belligerents would force them to consider peace proposals before the opening of another winter campaign.

President Wilson, Secretary Lansing, Cardinal Gibbons and Monsignor William T. Russell, rector of St.
Patrick's Catholic church here, the four men with direct knowledge of the message sent to the president by the pope, continued today to maintain silence on the subject. Interest was shown in official circles in a statement made by Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor in a letter sent yesterday to an organization known as the Friends of Peace, that labor leaders were keeping in constant touch with workmen in the nations at war. Mr. Gompers added that the American Federation of Labor at the proper time would do everything possible to aid in the accomplishment of peace.

Mr. Gompers has seen President Wilson within the last week but today he refused to say whether the question of peace had been discussed. He explained that the communication received from labor leaders abroad were naturally of such a confidential character that he could not make them public.

WIFE OF BELGIAN MINISTER OF JUSTICE TO BE RELEASED

HAYVE, Sept. 3.—The Belgian government has been officially informed that in deference to the wish expressed by the king of Spain, Mme.
Carton de Wiart, wife of the Belgian minister of justice will be released from prison tomorrow, but will not be allowed to return to Belgium. Her husband has gone to Switzerland to meet her.

Mme. DeWart was arrested in Belgium by the Germans late in May and sentenced to three months imprisonment for corresponding with her husband. It was stated later that she had been taken from Belgium and placed in prison in Berlin.

CATHERINE REING IS IOWA'S MOST NEARLY PERFECT BABY

DE SMOINES, Iowa, Sept. 3.— Catherine Reing, two year old daughter of Frederick Reing, banker at Lorimer, is Iowa's most nearly perfect baby. She was awarded the gold medal and trophy cup by the state fair board today for the highest score received in the baby health contest.

Tom D. Throckmorton, two year old son of Dr. T. D. Throckmorton of Des Moines, boy winner in the sweepstakes was one tenth of a point below the girl, whose score was 98.40.
The later was a prize winner in the state contest last year.

The state fair closed this afternoon.

GEIHTEN YEAR OLD TWIRLER PITCHES THIRTY-FOUR INNINGS

PEORIA, Ill., Sept. 3.—Walter Breymer, an eighteen year old pitcher for the Peoria Recreation Center baseball team, a semi-professional aggregation, pitched thirty-four innings in two games against the Keifer's Colts here today. The first game was called at the end of eleven innings with the score standing 0 to 0.

The second contest was won by Breymer's club by the score of 6 to 5 after twenty-three innings of snappy baseball.

In the first game Breymer struckout six men while only three hits were registered against him. In the second game the youthful pitcher struckout fifteen men and allowed but six hits during the twenty-three innings.

NAME RECEIVER FOR COMBINATION BRIDGE COMPANY AT SIOUX CITY

SIOUX CITY, Iowa, Sept. 3.—The Combination Bridge company which owns a bridge across the Missouri river here today went into the hands of a receiver. A Chicago bank which holds $10,000 in bonds and stockholders joined in an application for a receiver. The court empowered the receiver to spend $50,000 in making improvements. The bridge was built twenty years ago to afford a crossing for a proposed railroad from Sioux City to Denver.

CHARGES NEGROES WITH CONSPIRACY

Mrs. Mohr Holds Men Hoped to Mitigate Punishment By Involving Her

PLACE BODY IN TOMB

Miss Burger Has Not Yet Been Told of the Death of

TRIED TO RE-UNITE COUPLE

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Sept. 3.—The defense of Mrs. Elizabeth Tiffany Blair Mohr to the charge that in a jealous rage she plotted the death of her husband, is expected to be that both Dr. Franklin Mohr and herself were victims of a conspiracy.
In an interview today which was terminated when she lost her composure for the first time since her arrest, she declared her belief that Heals, Brown and Spellman, the three negroes who now accuse her, had planned to waylay Dr. Mohr and rob him. She holds that when they broke down under the grilling of the police they hoped to mitigate their punishment by representing that they had been incited by her upon the promise of a reward.

Place Body in Receiving Tomb.
The body of Dr. Mohr was placed in a receiving tomb at Swan Point Cemetery today after brief ceremonies in the presence of several relatives and neighbors. Mrs. Mohr and her two children, Charles Franklin, Jr. and Virginia Blair, were present at the service at the Mohr home in Elmwood and accompanied the body to the cemetery.

Mrs. Mohr did not look at the body. Only once as she was within a few feet of the coffin, did she show any emotion. Then for a few moments she wept convulsively.

Miss Emily G. Burger, the doctor's secretary, jealousy of whom inspired the crime, according to the police theory, has not yet been told of the death of her employer. She remains at the hospital recovering from bullet wounds received while on the automobile ride when Dr. Mohr was attacked. After visiting her today her brother-in-law, George Rooke, said that Miss Burger's regard for the physician was such that knowledge of his death would kill her.

"For a long time," said Rooke, "Miss Burger did all in her power to re-unite Dr. Mohr and his wife.
She found that he was bitter against Mrs. Mohr and would not entertain any such idea."

Miss Burger gave Rooke a statement for the press concerning her fatal night ride with Dr. Mohr, in substance as follows:

"Dr. Mohr was suspicious during the ride. Heals ran the machine from the Stewart street office at a high rate of speed. Several times the doctor remarked about it.

"We did not stop until the chauffeur brought the machine under the trees on the Washington road.
George then switched off the headlights and turned on the sidelights, remarking 'I am having trouble with a gas'."

"We sat in the tonneau of the machine and neither questioned him." Thought Car Was Backfiring.

"I was startled by the first shot, but thought it was the car back firing. A second shot did not make me realize my danger. Then three successive shots caused me to feel pain behind my ear and in my shoulder, but even then I did not realize that I was wounded and thought that some accident had happened to the car."

"I jumped up when I saw the blood streaming from Dr. Mohr's wounds, but all this time I had no idea of the true state of things. I sprang out of the car."

"I remember standing on the ground and Heals grabbing me roughly by the arm. He dragged me to the grass by the side of the car. I did not see either Brown or Spellman before or after the shooting."

Believes Mrs. Mohr Innocent.
Mrs. Mohr today met for the first time Charles M. Mohr, a son of Dr.
Mohr by another marriage. In speaking of the meeting Mr. Mohr expressed his belief in the innocence of the accused woman.

Lawyers here tonight expressed doubt whether the confession of the three negroes would have any standing in court, in so far as they tend to implicate Mrs. Mohr. The Rhode Island law, they explained, does not allow the admission as evidence of a confession by one person tending to incriminate another.

MEXICANS FIRE ACROSS BORDER AT AEROPLANE

TURN GUNS ON SQUAD OF AMERI-CAN SOLDIERS

Troops Return Fire — Concerted Plans Are Made to Exterminate or Drive Marauders Out of Border Country.

Brownsville, Texas, Sept. 3.—Mexicans on the Mexican side of the Rio Grande late today fired nearly a hundred shots at an American army aeroplane, flying over Brownsville and then turned their guns upon a squad of American soldiers in guard at the Brownsville electric light plant. The soldiers returned the fire. There were no casualties on the American side.

Lieutenants Joseph G. Morrow and D. Q. Jones were in the aeroplane.
This is the second time within two days that a United States army aeroplane has been fired upon.

Soldiers Hold Ten Mexicans.
United States soldiers at Los Tu-litos ranch, twenty miles north of here, during the past 48 hours have captured and are holding for investigation ten Mexicans who are suspected to be members of raiding gangs. United States cavalry and infantry and posses of county officers and citizens tonight continued the search through the section of country eleven miles from here where two Americans were murdered yesterday.

The list of bandit dead stood at six tonight although others probably have been killed and not reported.

Plan to Exterminate Marauders.
Concerted plans by federal, state and county authorities aided by hundreds of ranchmen and cowboys to exterminate or drive the marauders out of the border country were organized today.

Two hundred cavalry and infantry commanded by Captain H. S.
Hawkins of the third cavalry, are guarding the Old Adobe stage coach road and the railroad leading to San Benito. Detachments of men have been placed at every bridge and crossing and virtually every irrigation and power plant in this section is being guarded.

Several hundred owners of automobiles have agreed to hold their cars in readiness for instant use in dispatching infantry to any section.
All reports received at Fort Brown concerning the firing today at the aeroplane agreed that the shooting came from the Mexican side of the Rio Grande and from the same place where two days ago shots were fired at another American aeroplane.

Mexicans Hidden in Brush.

Whether the men who fired the shots at the aeroplane and at the guard of twelve American soldiers at the high and water plant were Carranza soldiers or Mexican irregulars is not known. The firing, which stopped when the Americans opened fire seemed to come from five or six rifles. The Mexicans were hidden in the brush on the Mexican side of the river and could not be seen.

It was reported tonight that a Carranza outpost had been stationed near the point from which the firing was directed.

Lieutenant Jones, the observer in today's flight, was the same officer who was fired upon while flying over Fort Brown last April. At that time, several hundred shots were fired at the aerial craft.

FOLLOW NUMEROUS CLUES IN EFFORT TO FIND CORD'S SLAYER

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 3.—Numerous clues were followed by the Carranza authorities today in their efforts to unravel the mystery surrounding the murder of Samuel S.
Cord, the wealthy real-estate operator, whose body was found on the river road near Merchantville, N. J., last Tuesday. Prosecutor Kraft tonight asserted that he hoped to arrest the murderer within the next twenty-four hours.

Olaf Peterson of Riverton, the business associate of Cord in several lumber and land enterprises, who was taken into custody as a material witness on Tuesday night, is still being detained in the Camden court house.

425,000 Horses, Mules Exported for Use in War.

To date 425,000 horses and mules have been shipped out of the United States for European belligerents. Purchase of the animals has been a big boom in the market for medium class horses. Department of Agriculture officials say. Government experts have been watching the records closely and they find that very few high-bred horses have been exported, with the result that prices for ordinary horses have increased.

Most of the horses have gone to England, but many shipments have been made to France and some to Italy. The supply is not being seriously depleted, government officials estimating that there are today approximately 21,000,000 horses and 4,000,000 mules in this country.

The Bankers at Seattle.

The annual convention of the American Bankers Association will take to Seattle many leaders in finance in America, and all sections of the country will be represented.

From the present outlook, there will be an interesting discussion of the national bank-trust company controversy, which relates to the legality of granting trust company functions under the reserve act to the national banks. It is expected that Henry M. Campbell of Detroit, attorney for the trust company section members of the association, as well as for Michigan trust companies, will address the convention on the reasons why in his judgment the national banks may not be permitted to exercise trust company functions, even though the reserve act does contemplate such a course when the State laws do not contravene. His reason, in short, is that he thinks the reserve act is unconstitutional.

Suits have been brought in Michigan and Illinois to test this question. It is believed that spirited reply will be made to the views of Mr. Campbell, and a general debate on the question may ensue.

A Personal and Public Question.

"The question before the people in the present campaign is not a personal issue," said a well known citizen yesterday, "but a matter of public policy. It isn't a question as to who is the mayor and who the commissioners, but as to whether the people prefer the old aldermanic form of government or the commission form."

This statement is in a measure true but nevertheless the personal element enters into the question in a very large degree. If the people are dissatisfied with the present mayor and commissioners they will doubtless vote in favor of a change, but if they are satisfied and hold the belief that the present officials are the equal of city officials who have served in the past and are likely to give Jacksonville good business management, they will vote in favor of continuing under the present form. Neither the mayor nor any of the commissioners since the movement for this election started have made any statement as to their intentions. It is presumed that they will take no part in the campaign and possibly will be somewhat in the attitude of Mayor Rodgers before election. At that time he signified his desire to be elected mayor if the people wanted him and stated that if elected he would use his best efforts to give the city an administration of a desirable type.

Everybody recognizes the principle that a good municipal government depends on the men who have charge of affairs, and thus in the present instance the personal element outweighs the element of policy. Unless the people believe that the present officials are not competent and honest and do not intend to manage municipal affairs in the proper way, there is no valid reason for changing to the old form at the present time. The history of the local government under the aldermanic form gives nothing to indicate the superiority of public service then by comparison with prospects now.

♦ "THE POWER OF MONEY." ♦
In the current Christian Evangelist is published the address given by the Rev. Myron L. Pontius before the national missionary convention of the Disciples of Christ at Los Angeles in July. In a plea for the observance of "Self denial week" Rev. Mr. Pontius says in part on "The Power of Money."

"There is no inherent power in money. Money is powerful only as men use it or abuse it. Let us notice the power of money to curse humanity. There is nothing in this world that will so surely blight the character and paralyze the highest faculties of the individual, as the abuse of money. The drunkard soon dies as the victim of his own folly, but the man who misuses his money moral law and corrupting human society. As a master, money is a cruel tyrant, as a servant, money is a royal blessing and a benediction.

"Let us notice the power of money to bless mankind. We are told that a great religion means a great humanity; a great God means a great worship; a great faith means a great consecration and we may add that a great conscience as to the right use of money means a great life, a great service.

"That money which is accumulated without giving society an equivalent in service may marked predatory wealth. Even when one has rendered a service equal to the money accumulated, society still demands that this wealth be used to clothe the naked, feed the hungry, evangelize the races, civilize mankind and make brighter the way of human pilgrimage.

"We must understand that there is a tremendous spiritual power back of money that is dedicated to a noble purpose. Unless our church members get as much pleasure out of paying their pledges as they do out of making them, there is something wrong with our religion.

"The first week in September should be self-denial week among the Disciples of Christ. Out of this self-denial there will come not only the desired money, but also a spiritual blessing which will transform our lives and churches."

WOMEN IN THE NEWS.

Atchison, Kas.—Two women are now in the political field for the high office of United States Senator from Kansas. Mrs. H. K. Burnes resigned her office yesterday as superintendent of the state orphan's home here, to take the stump. She declares she will oppose Mrs. Lillian Mitchell, who has already announced her candidacy. The women candidates seek the seat of Senator W. H. Thompson, whose term expires in 1919.

Minneapolis, Minn.—Miss Frances M. Crittenden of New York yesterday became secretary of the Minneapolis Y. W. C. A., succeeding Miss M. Belle Jeffery, who resigned after 23 years of helpful work here, to become head of the Los Angeles association. Miss Crittenden has been supervising the city work in Minnesota, Iowa, Nebraska and North and South Dakota, and has made an extensive study of girls' problems in the East and middle West.

Tokio.—The leader of the feminist movement in Japan is Mrs. Akiko Yosano, who has long been known as the "dreamer". Today she holds the public attention with her poems and essays, which are written "down" to the common people. She urges her people to be researchers, originators, and to arise to the great modern opportunities. She is a firm believer in the advancement of women, and in the newspapers and magazines she predicts great things for women when they are aroused to their importance in the Oriental world. With her husband, who is also a poet and a student of Japanese society, she has grown to high popularity.

St. Louis, Mo.—Miss Louise Le Noir Thomas, one of the prettiest of St. Louis belles, has given up the luxuries of her St. Louis home to teach in the Kentucky mountains. Miss Thomas is the Eleonora Sears of Missouri, and has a dash of originality that makes her distinctive. She enlisted as a volunteer for the school work among the mountaineers at Hindman, Ky. Although she aspires to teach art and the higher branches of learning, she declares she will be content to do anything that will help, down to dish-washing.

Washington, Ia.—Miss Margaret L. Cowden of this city, who has been studying mission work, sailed yesterday for Persia as a missionary. She will make her headquarters at Teheran and will devote herself to the Persian women, most of whom are Mohammedans. She expects to spend several years there, and will pick up the language and study the customs and the needs of the women of that ancient land. She declares that the ignorance in Persia is due to the teaching of Mohammedanism, and that it is wide in extent. Her aim is to bring about reforms by means of the common people. She hopes to establish a newspaper in Persia, to aid in uplifting the ignorant masses.

Waycross, Ga.—A "joker" in the amendment to the charter of Waycross has given the women the right to vote. The bill was passed and signed by the governor, and far down in the bill was the proviso that the right of suffrage in Waycross "shall not be denied to any citizen because of sex". Yet the law will not stand the test, if it is applied, say the lawmakers who passed the bill. Suffrage was turned down by the same legislature which went on record as overwhelmingly opposed. But when the Waycross bill came up, not a dissenting voice was raised. In signing the bill, the Governor made special note that the suffrage feature can not stand a test in Waycross. Now the question among the women of this city is, What are we going to do about it?

New Orleans, La.—Mrs. Deborah A. Milliken, whose philanthropy in the gift to the city of the Milliken Memorial Hospital for Children, has proven one of the city's greatest blessings, has been awarded the loving cup annually given by the Times-Picayune to the person who during the year rendered the greatest service to the city. Three other New Orleans women have won the honor during the fourteen years the cup has been annually awarded. Mrs. Milliken is 84 years old, and comes of a Maine family.

MURRAYVILLE MAN BURNED IN THRESHER ACCIDENT

Engine Goes Through Bridge and Claude Gunn Has Leg Pinned to Firebox.

Claude Gunn, south of Murrayville is suffering with a seriously burned left leg, due to an accident at 4:30 o'clock Friday afternoon when the threshing engine he was driving broke through a plank bridge and pinned the limb against the firebox.

Dr. J. H. Spencer took the injured man to his office in Murrayville and after dressing the limb, took him south of Murrayville to his home. Mr. Gunn's suffering was intense as his leg was in contact with the hot metal during the time necessary to pry up the engine by means of jacks.

The threshing outfit had just finished a job on the farm of Mrs. Kate McGrath and was going north when the accident happened. Mr. Gunn was resting well last night, but probabilities are that he will be kept from active work for several weeks.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR DR. G. V. BLACK

PROMINENT MEN FROM MANY CITIES HERE TO HONOR HIM.

Ministers Lay Emphasis on Qualities Which Gave Deceased World Wide Renown—Dental Societies Send Representatives—Burial at Diamond Grove.

Funeral services in memory of the late Dr. Green V. Black were held Friday afternoon at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Carl E. Black, 1302 West State street. The services were of a most impressive character and bore fitting testimony to the great life gone forth to the larger existence. And while the services were impressive, there was about them a simplicity well in accord with the gentle and modest spirit which characterized Dr. Black through the long years of his remarkably useful life. There were many in attendance from out of the city, a large representation having been sent by the Chicago Dental society in order to give some recognition to the loss sustained to the dental profession and to science by Dr. Black's death. The company included also a number of long time friends of the deceased who have also become eminent because of their devotion to scientific research work. Dr. A. B. Morey, who had long been a friend of Dr. Black, was in charge of the services and was assisted by Dr. F. S. Hayden, dean of Illinois college, who had also been upon terms of intimate friendship with the deceased. Mrs. Genevieve Clark Wilson sang "My Jesus," and then Dr. Hayden offered a prayer and read a number of scripture passages.

Dr. Morey then paid tribute to Dr. Black, laying special emphasis upon the elements in his character and the achievements in his work which made him great. He pointed out that Dr. Black was so modest about his success and achievement that to few people locally was it given to know how great had been this man's contribution to humanity. After Dr. Morey had concluded, Dr. Hayden also spoke in a somewhat personal way of Dr. Black, touching upon the qualities of heart and brain which had formed the dominating influence in the scientist's life. Dr. Morey then offered a few words of prayer and Mrs. Wilson sang "Abide With Me."

This concluded the house services and the long cortege moved to Diamond Grove cemetery.

A Really Great Man. In his address Dr. Morey said: "Few in Jacksonville knew the worth of Dr. Black or had any idea of his greatness. It was known that his name had gone abroad, that he had traveled much, had written many books; that he was engaged in some sort of scientific investigation; that in the dental profession he was the highest authority, and that in medical science he had led the searchers of truth. But few people of our city knew that we had a great man in our midst. The simplicity of his life and character was the reason for this failure to recognize him—was the secret of his greatness. He seemed not to be aware of his greatness. No truly great man is. His modesty of manner and simplicity of speech and ripeness of thought made him attractive to those of us who were in any way associated with him. As I was thrown much in his society, met him in our literary circle, visited him in his laboratory and watched his work and saw his enthusiasm, I cannot think of him apart from this personal relation to me and others who were thus associated with him. And in that close personal contact with him I saw the man—the man of culture—the great man."

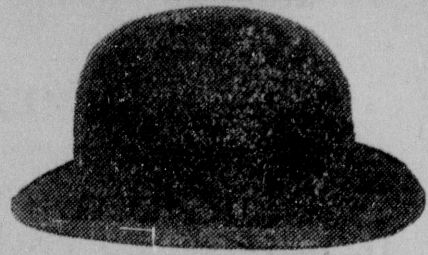

"True greatness is artless, approachable, considerate, a good listener, and when self is at stake, a poor talker. Greatness never advertises itself. It has the art of concealing in art. Self advertisement is weakness—always weakness—and something to which only the small men are prone. Little greatness pushes herself forward, greatness retreats and retires. Strength does not boast, strength is gentle. Gentleness is power in restraint. To speak the truth, to live the truth, to love truth, to be kindly hearted, to be unassuming in word and act, to be honorable without being harsh; to hate nothing but wrong and falsehood; to love everything true and pure and wholesome—this is true greatness. And such was our friend. One of the signs of greatness is its freshness of feeling. It invests the most familiar objects with interest and newness. It sees them the one hundredth time with the same surprise and charm and enthusiasm that it saw them the first time. To see with fresh eyes and feeling, with a fresh heart, was one of the happy and helpful things our friend carried with him from childhood over into middle life, and down to old age. He used to go by himself to the northern forests and streams where he had no one to please but himself, where his time was his own, where he was free from interruption and from all fear and care and worry.

Loved Solitude.

"All rare and delicate minds have in a large measure this instinct of aloneness. Newton and Turner and Goethe and Shelley and Wordsworth and Hawthorne—and in a preeminent sense—Darwin. Dr. Black sought that solitude for intellectual stimulus. In the hurry of life there is a temptation to shallowness. What all of us need in these days of nerve shattering telephones and rapid transit is a time to become acquainted with ourselves. We are losing the art of meditation. We need some roomy spaces of stillness in our lives. What a busy, bustling people we are! Hurry, like worry,

Before Baby Arrives

During several weeks of expectancy there is a splendid external embroachment in our "Mother's Friend" in which thousands of women have the most unbounded confidence. They have used it and know. They tell of its wonderful influence to ease the abdominal muscles and how they avoided those dreaded stretching pains that are so much talked about. This safe external application is gently used over the skin to render it amenable to the natural stretching which it undergoes. The myriad of nerve threads just beneath the skin is thus relieved of unnecessary pain-producing causes and great physical relief is the result as expressed by a host of happy mothers who write from personal experience.

It is a subject that all women should be familiar with as "Mother's Friend" has been in use many years, has been given the most severe tests under most all trying conditions and is recommended by women who to-day are grandmothers and who in their earlier years learned to rely upon this splendid aid to women.

"Mother's Friend" is declared by a multitude of women to be just what expectant motherhood requires. You can obtain "Mother's Friend" at almost any drug store. Get a bottle to-day and then write for our little book so useful to expectant mothers. Address: Bradfield Regulator Co., 512 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

What is said herein of "Mother's Friend" is but a repetition of the thoughts expressed by thousands of happy mothers who have successfully used this splendid external application.

MRS. RANKIN'S DEATH BROUGHT BEAUTIFUL LIFE TO CLOSEDeceased Had Spent All of Her Years in Illinois—Thirteen Years a Resident of Jacksonville—Rev. D. G.
Carson Paid Deserved Tribute to Her Character.

The following account of the death of the late Mrs. Henry B. Rankin and the funeral services held in her memory is from the Springfield Register:

Mrs. Alma Hurd Rankin, wife of Henry B. Rankin, died Tuesday, Aug. 31, 1915, at the family residence and home of her daughter, Mrs. Clayton J. Barber, 510 South Second street, this city, aged 73 years. She was born June 29, 1842, near Lowell, La Salle county, Illinois, where she spent her first years at the home of her parents, Hiram and Henrietta Hurd, who came from Vermont to Illinois in 1836. She was married May 4, 1864, to Henry B. Rankin and for twenty-eight years lived on a farm in the Indian Point community near Athens, where she became a member of North Sangamon Presbyterian church. Later she moved to Jacksonville, where they lived for thirteen years, and for the last ten years she and her husband have lived with her daughter, Mrs. Clayton J. Barber.

The immediate members of the family surviving her are: Her husband and three children, Fred H. Rankin of Urbana and Albert H. Rankin of this city and Mrs. Clayton J. Barber of this city. Interment was made at Indian Point cemetery near Athens.

The funeral services were held at the home Thursday, conducted by Rev. D. G. Carson of Fourth Presbyterian church, assisted by Dr. Donald C. MacLeod of the First Presbyterian church. Doctor Carson was for sixteen years pastor of the North Sangamon Presbyterian church, of which Mrs. Rankin was a life-long member. He spoke in part as follows:

"This event which calls us together in this home today is one which should indeed cause sober, serious thought, but neither regret nor tears. This is instead an occasion of triumph of faith over doubt, of hope over fear, of joy over grief, of life over death.

"The story is told that one of the wise men of ancient Greece, Solon by name, when visiting the Lydian King Croesus in his palace in Sardis was led by the proud king into his treasure chambers and shown the fabulous wealth which they contained, and asked by the vain monarch to name the happiest man he had ever seen. The philosopher, after a little thought, named two obscure Greeks of whom Croesus had never heard. Mortified at the apparent dullness of Solon, the king explained that in view of the vicissitudes of life no one should be accounted happy until his death.

"Not thus is it to the true follower of the Christ. Not thus is it to this Christian woman in her varied relations as bride, wife, mother, matron. Living in right relations with her Heavenly Father and her Savior, with her beloved ones in the home, and with the friends in the wide circle of her acquaintance, her life was full to overflowing with the joy of doing good and of promoting the happiness of others. During her life this joy—the joy of her Lord—remained in her; and so she waited not to the end of life for gladness and happiness.

"Nearly fifty-two years ago as a happy bride she left the home of her parents and the associations of her earlier life with her husband to establish a new home and new association in a new community. In a new way entirely free from ostentation she gave herself without reserve to the new interests of her new environment. She was a true mother to his children and hers, watching over them in their early years with a mother's tender solicitude and love tempered with excellent wisdom and judgment; and was deeply interested in their education, along all lines, for the responsibility of life. She identified herself with her husband's church, and gave loyal support to its activities. She was interested in the community, and in the well-being of all her neighbors and of humanity at large. It has seldom been my privilege to know one whose practical, helpful sympathies were so intensive and extensive.

"When the marriage vows were spoken which established this home more than half a century ago the bride, doubtless, pledged herself to her husband in the words commonly used on such occasions. As we see how that pledge was kept, we catch a glimpse of the deeper answer of her heart, and hear the echo of Ruth's words to Naomi: 'Leave thee, and to return from following after thee; for whither thou goest, I will go; and where thou lodgest I will lodge; thy people shall be my people and thy God my God; where thou diest I will die, and there will I be buried; the Lord do so to me, and more also, if aught but death part thee and me.'

"How fully and faithfully this pledge was kept to the last, only this husband for more than half their married life an invalid, and these two sons and daughter, can know.

"Two days ago there occurred the only event that could terminate this intimate association. The wife, the mother, was called by the messenger who accepts no excuse and brooks no delay. Gladly, we know, she answered the summons, for she had been expecting it, waiting for it, and was ready. Her work done, well done, she has rested from her labors. She had wrought patiently, faithfully, bearing the heat and burden of the day in her childhood home; in the country home to which she went as a bride; in the city of Jacksonville, where with her family she spent their teen beautiful years; and the last ten years in this city. In all these localities, she leaves behind many loving friends whose hearts beat in responsive sympathy with ours to-day as we look into her face for the last time.

"The family circle is broken for the first time and can never be restored here. But in the closer sympathy and sweeter fellowship the associations will be renewed one day where no interruption will ever come.

"Here was a life not merely of service; but of suffering also. For many years her health has been precarious and often times her suffering great. She served her Master both by doing and enduring. Faithful, patient, calm, serene through it all, she could say with Paul, 'I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith.' And for her as for him was laid up the crown of righteousness. Rest, peace, joy has come at last, and much as we shall miss her, we should rejoice that she has left toil and suffering behind forever, and entered into her reward."

BRITISH RELEASE MANY DETAINED GERMAN CARGOESMore Liberal Policy Toward United States Importers Indicated—Shipments from Rotterdam Expected Soon.

Information obtained recently according to the Journal of Commerce indicates that the British government is now endeavoring to avoid every possible injury to American import trade by the adoption of a more liberal policy in treating claims presented for merchandise of German and Austrian origin which has been detained for months at Rotterdam and other neutral European ports. It is learned that within the past ten days the British authorities at London have issued permits for the passage of at least twenty valuable American import cargoes having an aggregate value of approximately $467,500.

In issuing the permits for bringing forward the detained cargoes of German and Austrian origin it is learned that the British government has done so in many cases without strict reference to the ruling that such merchandise must have been bought and paid for by the American importer prior to March 1 in compliance with the terms of the British order in council.

List of Released Shipments

Following is given a complete list of the cargoes which have thus far been released by the British government, together with the names of the importers to whom they were consigned and their respective approximate values:

OLD DANBURY HATTERS

MAY LOSE THEIR HOMES

Court Proceedings in Progress Many Years Result in Victory for Manufacturing Firm—Hatters Will Be Given Three Months Period for Redemption.

Danbury, Conn., Sept. 3.—United States Marshals have served foreclosure notices on the losing defendants in the famous boycott case, and hearing will be given the hat workers in Hartford tomorrow, at which time they will be allowed to show cause why their homes should not be sold. By decision of the U. S. Supreme Court, the Danbury hatters are liable for damages amounting to $260,000, which D. E. Loewe, & Son, independent hat manufacturers of this city, finally won after twelve years' litigation.

The loss of their homes now hangs like a darkening cloud over the old age of many of the hatters. There are 240 defendants in all, many of whom have died since the court proceedings began. The widows of these, and many old and feeble hat workers, are in danger of losing the roofs that shelter them. Their homes represent the savings of their lifetimes, in many cases. To turn over these homes to the government for public auction is the situation the aged hat workers face today.

It is believed that the aged hatters will be allowed three months in which to redeem their homes. After this time, the homes will be subject to sale to collect the damages decreed by the courts.

It is said that the United Hatters and other organizations affiliated with the American Federation of Labor are planning to aid in the homes and restore them to their present owners. The local union officials do not entertain any such hopes. It was suggested that the American Federation assess a per capita tax of 15 cents, which would have satisfied the Loewe claim, but this move was quashed by men higher up in the Federation.

Some of the aged workers threatened with loss of their homes fought in the Civil War; others never worked for Loewe and were named in the boycott conspiracy because they were affiliated with the organization; many are invalids who make their meagre living from small gardens; to all the loss of their homes means the poor-house.

The history of the hatters' boycott dates back to 1901, when the union hatters employed by Loewe struck. An alleged boycott was conducted against the Loewe hats. Suit was brought in 1903 by Loewe against 240 members of the union. The case, which was taken up by the American Anti-Boycott Association, was first brought in the U. S. District Court in Hartford, but was brought to the U. S. Supreme Court on the point whether the allegations made constituted a violation of the Sherman Anti-Trust Law. In February, 1908, the Supreme Court decided that the allegations did constitute a violation of the law, and in October, 1909, the case was begun at Hartford. After a three months' trial, the jury found for the plaintiffs and awarded them damages of $222,000. That the American Federation was back of the hatters was brought out in the trial at Hartford.

In 1911 the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals reversed this decision and remanded the case for a new trial. The hat company again won, and the decision went to the U. S. Supreme Court on points of law. The Supreme Court sustained the award, and ordered the damages to be collected.

The hatters are liable to the extent of about $260,000. It is said that attachments on savings bank accounts of the workers amounted to $60,000, some time ago. Many new attachments have been made, and it is possible that $100,000 may be raised in this way. The homes of the workers are substantial affairs, not the barracks of mill cities, and a survey of the town leads to the belief that the full amount of the damages will be collected.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Strawn and daughter and Gates Strawn of Mount Avenue and Miss Georgia De Pue of Washington, D. C., have returned from an auto trip to Springfield.

SEE AMERICA FIRST—LINCOLN'S TOMB.

Because Abraham Lincoln lies buried in the cemetery at Springfield, Ill., several thousand people visit that city each year to gaze respectfully at his tomb.

This pilgrimage is an act of great devotion, because Springfield is not readily reached by the population of America. Nine-tenths of the population live more than 500 miles away and the tourist routes pass far to the north. But it will pay the real American far greater dividends than a long and billowy trip to Shakespeare's tomb or Goethe's house or Samuel Johnson's tavern. Lincoln was buried in the town where he grew great and some of his honesty and kindness may be contagious.

The tomb of Lincoln is located in one of the most beautiful cemeteries in the country and the state of Illinois has built a vast and soaring monument over his tomb. It is a granite shaft on a pedestal around which are bronze groups of the army, navy, artillery and cavalry—four institutions upon which Lincoln relied at a time when certain earnest gentlemen were urging the country to settle its troubles by organizing a peace association and crawling under the bed. In the vault beneath this monument are the remains of Lincoln, Mrs. Lincoln, two sons and a grandson.

In a room in the pedestal are many relics of Lincoln. In the Lincoln home in Springfield, which is carefully preserved, are many more. We may read in many of Lincoln's letters, which are preserved, that he was a shy, timid man when he first came to Springfield and that the carriages of the rich which splashed mud on him as they dashed haughtily by made him hesitate to bring his young bride here—for he couldn't afford a carriage and the walking was very poor in muddy unpaved central Illinois.

We should be perpetually thankful that Lincoln did not save up his money and buy a carriage, instead of spending it on law books and a belated education. Sometimes it almost seems as if nothing in the world is so worthless as the things for lack of which the young man grieves and is disconsolate.

CHICAGO SPLITS DOUBLE BILL WITH CLEVELAND

UNUSUAL PLAY COSTS SOX SECOND GAME.

Kirke wings at Wild Pitch on Third Strike and Runs to First, Advancing Smith to Second—Neither Ump or Players Seem to Notice Blunder—Both Score on Two More Wild Pitches and an Error.

Chicago, Sept. 3.—An unusual play which caught the Chicago White Sox napping, cost the locals the game with Cleveland today. Chicago won the first game 8 to 2 but the visitors took the second, 6 to 5.

The play which cost Chicago a game occurred in the fourth inning of the second contest. Two men had scored and Smith was on first base, with one out. Kirke swung at a wild pitch for the third strike and ran to first, while Smith took second. Under the rules Kirke should have been called out, neither the umpires nor the local players seemed to notice the blunder. Two more wild pitches and an error enabled Smith and Kirke to score.

Kirke's double in the eighth following singles by Roth and Graney and Smith's sacrifice fly gave Cleveland the game.

In the initial contest Chicago bunched hits and won easily. Weaver's home run in the first game and the fielding of Chapman, Debold and Eddie Collins were interesting.

THE SCHOOL PLANT AND RECREATION

Men will not tolerate in a public-school building a performance they might witness without protest in other places, says Clarence A. Perry, in a bulletin just issued by the U. S. Bureau of Education. For this reason Dr. Perry thinks the movement to use the school plant for social and recreational purposes is destined to purify as well as popularize amusements.

"The teaching staff and other machinery of the public schools are dedicated by the people to a betterment service," says Dr. Perry, "therefore society will not permit the building erected solely for that purpose to be put to a contrary use."

Statistics gathered by Dr. Perry from 45 leading cities in the United States show that in one month there were over 800,000 attendances upon evening functions in the public-school buildings of these cities. The bulletin declares that these figures mean so many evenings spent in wholesome activity by persons many of whom would otherwise have spent that time in less beneficial or in positively harmful pastimes. "These 800,000 instances of the influence of the school in one month, whether scattered over many persons or concentrated upon a few, indicate the tremendous force for righteousness that was extended by one month's extension work in these 45 cities."

"The public character of all functions held in the school buildings has the effect of censoring these functions," asserts Dr. Perry. The activity which a group heartily, publicly, and unashamedly seeks, affords the kind of expression that its members need. When youths and maidens consort in the public-school building in social life we may be certain that instincts of racial importance are being cherished instead of exploited.

"Unfortunately," says Dr. Perry, "a large number of young people, in the heyday of life, are devoting their ample margins of energy to passive amusements and degenerating satisfactions. What holds these young people back from profitable pastime is lack of meeting places and of leadership. Suitable meeting places and wise leadership would, for a vast majority of them, change the evenings of waste and drifting into times of upbuilding and character strengthening. The opportunity which society needs for this purpose it possesses in the vast equipment of the public school which lies idle otherwise during the period of popular leisure."

President James of the state university was entertained yesterday at dinner by Mr. and Mrs. James Weir Elliott. Mrs. Elliott's mother, Mrs. Constance Smith, a member of the faculty of the university, was also a guest at the home of her daughter.

"MORNING GLANCES" (By Gosh)

The White Sox broke even with Cleveland yesterday through an apparent lack of knowledge of the rules. The Sox won the first game easily by a score of 8 to 2. In the second game Kirke swung at a wild pitch with Smith on first base Smith took second and Kirke went to first. They both scored on two wild pitches and an error. Under the rules Kirke was out but the White Sox team failed to take notice of the error of judgment.

Roth whom the Sox released to Cleveland was one of the causes of Cleveland winning the second game. After the blunder in the fourth he singled in the eighth and with a single by Graney and a sacrifice by Smith the game was won.

Detroit met up with some bad luck yesterday when they lost to St. Louis by a score of 3 to 2. The Browns surprised the Tigers and worked a triple steal in the eighth inning and Shotton raced over with the run that won the game.

The Cubs lost to Pittsburgh yesterday when the Pirates landed on Humphries in the second inning for four hits and three runs. The final score was 4 to 1 in favor of Pittsburgh. Mamaux was effective throughout for Pittsburgh. Honus Wagner played first base for the Pirates and made a double and a triple.

Rudolph who was knocked from the rubber by Brooklyn on Thursday came back Friday and won his game by a score of 6 to 3. The Braves batted both Douglass and Smith hard.

St. Louis beat Cincinnati yesterday by a score of 3 to 1. The Reds lost the game by errors, four being chalked up during the game.

Boston gained on Detroit yesterday by winning while they were losing to St. Louis by beating the Athletics. The score was 10 to 2 in favor of the leaders.

Walter Johnson pitched a great game against New York yesterday. Cullop pitching for Kansas City beat the Whales yesterday, the final score being 4 to 0. Cullop held Chicago to three hits while Brown was hit for four safeties but they were bunched.

Buffalo defeated Newark Friday by a score of 8 to 1. Krapp was effective holding Newark to four hits while Moseley and Moran were hit for twelve safeties by Buffalo.

UNIQUE PICNIC

Quite a unique picnic was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Douglas, on Spates street, Friday forenoon. There had been sickness in the family the first part of the week and Mrs. Douglas could not do the weekly washing until Friday. She had just gotten fairly started when here came a half dozen or so of the neighbors' children, some to stay till their mothers went to town, others just to play. She hardly knew what to do, but well knew one thing, that there would be no help from her own children unless she could get the visitors to help too. So she put her mind instead of her hands to work for a few minutes and thought of a plan. She told the little visitors they would turn the gathering into a picnic with some work and lots of play, and the first thing on the program was to get plenty of water. They responded nicely, the little ones pumping and the larger ones carrying it, until all the water needed was brought. Then they were all allowed to play a while. There were several quarts of canned fruit to be put away in the cellar. They did that, turned the washing machine some, did various things to help along. At 10 o'clock refreshments were served which consisted of apples, grapes, ginger bread, and water. Each one went home happy, feeling that they had done "something". Those present were Earl Fernandes, Raymond and Wilson Douglas, Hazel and Mary Portado, Lois and Ruby Douglas, Beatrice Nunes, Allen Fernandes and little Amy Frances Douglas.

Geneva, Switzerland, Aug.—How an Alpine chasseur gambled for his life with a captured German is told in a letter to his sister in Geneva.

"I won," he says, "but had not the heart to kill my German adversary. He spoke French well, having been at Marseilles two years, and knew the game of 'manille' well, but the cards favored me. My coporal and myself were sent out at night to reconnoitre and captured this German sentinel quietly smoking, out of reach of his rifle, standing against a tree nearby. He surrendered but made sarcastic remarks in French about the way we make prisoners, so I challenged him to stake his life against mine at cards. The German is now a satisfied prisoner in France.

Paris, Aug.—The newspapers are trying to discover the first soldier in the French army to whom was applied the name of "polly" (hirsute). Le Matin claims that it was the General-in-Chief Joffre to whom this name was first applied when he was a captain in Indo-China. At that time he wore a splendid blond beard that profoundly impressed the Annamites, who have a strong habit of referring to distinguished people by nicknames. They referred to Joffre as "Loun-Lou," which in Annamite signified "hairy" and in French "polly".

WORLD'S MARKET NEWS

PROSPECT FOR CONTINUANCE OF GOOD WEATHER LOWERS WHEAT

General Selling Brings a Net Loss of 1 1/2 to 2 Cents—Corn Follows the Course of Wheat.

Chicago, Sept. 3.—General selling lowered wheat today the market showing a net loss of 1 1/2 to 2c with September at 96, December at 92 1/2 and May at 96 1/2. Corn followed the course of wheat, closing at a net loss of 1/2 to 3/4 to 2 1/4; oats finished 1/2 to 3/4 lower and provisions irregular 7 1/2 up to 25c down.

The lowering tendency in the wheat pit was augmented not only by the fact that threatened rains in the northwest failed to develop but by the fact that the outlook seemed to be for continuance of good weather. Reports said that threatening of winter wheat was going on rapidly but that returns from Missouri were disappointing.

Corn dropped to new low figures for the crop after September alone had made a slight advance on early scattered buying. Reports that the west was selling corn to be brought here caused September selling pressure here and the market broke more than a cent. Part of the loss was recovered. New crop deliveries were under stress almost throughout the session on favorable weather news and good crop reports. Eastern demand was rather slow.

Selling of oats was not pushed as there was large bids from seaboard for cash oats, but they were slightly under a working basis. Domestic demand was only fair after an early rather strong opening and the market edged off. Weakness in pork was due to general liquidation by longs and this carried down values rather sharply.

Lard and ribs were influenced somewhat by weakness of pork but held up fairly well under the circumstances.

CHARITIES CONFERENCE WILL BE HELD IN DANVILLE

Program Will Include Advances Made During Past Twenty Years in Social Service.

A celebration of twenty years of progress in public and private charity will be the feature of the twentieth annual Illinois conference of charities and correction at Danville, Oct. 23, 24, 25 and 26. Preparations are being made for a program and a gathering that shall fittingly mark this celebration with a stimulation of social service work throughout the whole state.

The subjects of the program will be: Social surveys, labor and compensation, rural social work, mental and physical efficiency, probation and prevention of crime, medio-social work, the family and children.

The conference will open at noon Saturday, Oct. 23, with health and safety first meetings at a number of the industrial plants of Danville. The formal opening of the conference will occur that evening. Sunday afternoon Archbishop James J. Keane, of Dubuque, will be one of the speakers.
At Sunday night's meeting, Chief Justice Harry Olson, of the Chicago municipal court, and Roger Baldwin, of St. Louis, will be two of the four speakers. On Monday night it is expected that Governor Dunne will make an address.

During the conference there will be meetings of the following organizations: The state probation officers' association, the state association of superintendents and matrons of county homes, and the Illinois association for the prevention of tuberculosis.

State charities will be discussed on Monday at a joint session of the board of administration, the state charities commission, the state civil service commission and the superintendents of state charitable institutions.

In addition to the speakers already mentioned, Mr. Alexander Johnson, of Vineland, N. J., will be present.
Invitations have been extended to Miss Jane Addams, Miss Julia Lathrop, Frederick Hoffman, Thomas Mott Osborne, Brother Barnabas and many others.

COLLEGE SOCIALISTS GATHER IN N. H.

Hampton Falls, N. H., Sept. 3.— The Labor Day Conference of the Intercollegiate Socialist Society has brought to this summer watering place many professors and leaders of the socialist cause in the educational world. While the formal meetings will not open until tomorrow, most of the leaders are here today, and informal discussions are under way.
Peace and its relationship with Socialism will form one of the principal topics of the conference.

Among those who will take part are John Spargo, Prof. Vida L. Sender, William E. Walling, Prof. Ellen Hayes, J. C. Phelps Stokes of Yale, who is president of the society, Mrs.
Rose Pastor Stokes, Jessie W. Hugh-an, Miss Juliet S. Poyntz of Barnard College, Norman Angell, Florence Kelley of Cornell, and Prof. Emily G.
Balch of Wellesley. An interesting quest is expected in the person of Senator Henri Lafontaine of Belgium, a Socialist leader of that country.

The formal meetings open tomorrow and extend until Monday evening. On Sunday the conferees will go to Whittier's birthplace, where a session will be held.

FOREIGN CORRESPONDENCE. (By Associated Press)

The Hague, Netherlands, Sept. — (Correspondence of the Associated Press)—Reports of Dutch colonial expeditions which have recently completed the preliminary exploration of Dutch New Guinea bring to light many stories of remarkable feats of endurance and discovery. For about seven years officers of the Dutch colonial Army with European and natives soldiers and coolies have been making a complete map of the colony and this work is now finished.
Dutch New Guinea is about fourteen times as large as the Netherlands and was settled by a few Dutchmen as long ago as 1828, but was only officially recognized as a colony late last century. It comprises the greater part of the island of Papua in the South Seas.

In the course of the map work, which was attended by great difficulties and some loss of life, all the members of the expeditionary force underwent severe privations and suffered considerable sickness. Their lives were in danger from hostile natives as they passed up unknown rivers and cut their way through almost impenetrable virgin bush or clambered high mountains covered with eternal snow and never before ascended by white men.

The country was found to be fairly thickly populated in some parts and the natives in the interior were among the most primitive in the world. Many of them had never before come into contact with white men and fled at their approach, so that the explorers in some instances could not obtain data as to their customs, language, measurements or mode of living. Nearly all were found to be in their absolute natural state and without clothing. The grown men's noses were pierced with bamboo canes and it appeared that this was done with great ceremony after a certain age had been attained. Amid feasting and dancing, the first hole is pierced with a finely pointed sago horn and the aperture is gradually enlarged in five operations until the requisite size has been reached for the insertion of the cane. The women of some tribes had a slight covering consisting of a short skirt of woven leaves.

Some of the tribes were actively hostile head hunters and attacked the explorers with bows and arrows and short hardwood spears whose points were sometimes formed of bone. Others of the natives were peacefully inclined and willing in return for a few trinkets to permit the explorers to make all the necessary observations without interference.

The natives appear to cling mostly to the banks of the many rivers, where they live in carefully constructed habitations built in the trees or on piles 20 or 30 feet high.
In the far interior, however, many settlements were found composed of substantial buildings supported by thick three trunks and covered with roofs of the large dried leaves of tropical plants. In fact several of the dwellings were divided into various apartments—a large one in the center for the men and boys and separate ones for each woman.

In the coastal lands the natives construct their huts or rather arbors in a long line like a street, each habitation supported by the next one.
Many of the coast people had previously become acquainted with white men who had come to hunt birds of paradise and they also knew that manure was valuable.

The knowledge of metals among the natives is very limited and their cutting tools are stone axes and flint chisels. With these some of the tribesmen managed to carve ornaments on their prologues or canoes, their bars and little figures for the adornment of their habitations.

Some kind of superstitious belief is prevalent in the interior, for each habitation in the settlements has its own god usually in the shape of a huge turtle on which is stuck a fish head.

Hunting and fishing are the main occupations of the natives, but in the interior many of the habitants are surrounded by patches for the cultivation of root-crops and sugar cane, which with fish and sago form the main food of the people, who are very fond of lobsters and mussels, which are plentiful.

Everywhere the country is infested with snakes and the rivers swarm with alligators, but animals are not numerous and comprise chiefly dogs, tame and wild hogs, and kangaroos and other marsupials as well as many rats.

The conformation of the country varies from low-lying marshlands pregnant with fever to high healthy plateaus and mountains such as the Wilhelmina Peak, which was climbed by two Dutch officers and found to measure about 15,275 feet, nearly as high as Mount Blanc.

Several of the rivers flow very swiftly and are full of rapids and falls, so that the members of the detachments into which the exploring force was divided had often to drag or carry their motorboats and native pirogues over land for long distances.

The collections made by the explorers are very valuable in connection with the ethnography, zoology, botany and geology of the island colony, and it is generally expected that the exploitation of the natural resources of the island will speedily follow the report of the military pioneers of civilization who have now ended their work.

London, Aug. — Instructions have been issued to all post offices in the United Kingdom that in order to strengthen the gold reserve they must make all cash payments in paper money instead of gold. Paper money has never attained any popularity in England and the postoffices will probably have some difficulty in getting the common people more used to it.

London, Aug. — The decision of the City Corporation to demolish the long disused "Mill House" of the Society of Apothecaries in connection with the widening of streets near the famous Blackfriars bridge, is a remainder of the long feud between the London apothecaries and physicians. Some years ago, the physicians, jealous of the manner in which the apothecaries were usurping their functions by prescribing for the poor, met and decided that members of the College of Physicians would "give advice gratis to the sick poor in the City and seven miles around." The apothecaries countered by charging exorbitant prices for the drugs prescribed by their rivals, with the result that the physicians established free dispensaries.

The apothecaries then made friends with certain prominent doctors and succeeded in dividing the profession into two camps, the Dispensarians and the anti-Dispensarians, who carried on the struggle until Parliament interfered and defined their respective spheres.

London, August.—The colonization of groups of Belgian refugees in various parts of England has brought with it the butcher shop for the sale of horse meat. The horse-butcher has hitherto been almost unknown in England, except in a few of the poorer quarters of London.

Three horse-meat shops have just been opened in Glasgow, steaks are sold at 10 to 12 cents a pound, and sausages at 10 cents a pound, pickled and smoked cuts are 14 cents.
A Belgian butcher-shop at Stirling will give away several cart loads of horse meat to the English people of the town in the hope of popularizing their goods among a wider class.

There are probably twenty horse butcher shops in London. Under the law, it is legal for any butcher to sell horse meat provided that a permanent notice is exhibited at the front of the shop to that effect, and provided also that the customers ask for or are informed that they are receiving such meat.

Tokio, Aug.—Simultaneously with the revelations of parliamentary bribery and corruption disclosed by the resignation of the Okuma cabinet the public has been interested in a case of official corruption involving an ex-governor of the Japanese part of Saghalien Island. The official, Tetsuro Hiraoka, has already been convicted of embezzlement by a preliminary court.

The court found that the ex-governor had misappropriated the proceeds of $50,000 worth of revenue stamps and had embezzled $25,000 received as rents from fishing companies.

The southern half of Saghalien was given to Japan by Russia at the conclusion of the Russo-Japanese war. Mr. Hiraoka was governor from 1908 to 1914.

CASES OF INTEREST.

Getting Rid of Officers.

(West Publishing Co.)

"Offices may come and go, but I'll get my salary just the same" was perhaps the mental attitude taken by a certain Mr. Gilmur when the city of Seattle, Wash., sought to depose him from his office. For some cause unimportant to the instant case, Gilmur's removal from office had been sought by the city fathers of Seattle. The removal was enjoined by the Supreme Court of Washington. There was passed an ordinance abolishing the position, and at the same time another ordinance re-creating the same position, the latter ordinance to become effective immediately upon the going into effect of the ordinance abolishing the position. Gilmur thereupon commenced a second proceeding to prevent his removal, and the city was again enjoined from removing him from office. In furtherance of its evident design, the city, through its legislative department, again abolished the position filled by Gil-mur, and on the day such last ordinance went into effect Gilmur was notified that his services were no longer required. Gilmur subsequently sued out this writ of mandamus, seeking reinstatement, and for a direction to the proper officials of the city to deliver to him warrants upon the general fund of the city for the amount of his salary up to the time of his reinstatement. The judgment of the lower court was adverse to Gilmur, and, it having been so announced, the city again indicated the motive actuating it in this matter by passing another ordinance creating the position. The court says: "The purpose of the statutes creating and regulating civil service is to insure the continuance in public employment of faithful and competent officials without subjecting them to the vicissitudes of political strife. Statutes of this character are not intended to, nor do they, abridge the power of the city to abolish an office when its duties have ceased to exist, or to do any other act for the better or more economical administration of the city's affairs, when influenced by good motives and justifiable ends.

*** To abolish an office, with the sole purpose of getting rid of the man, but not the office, is not an act of good faith, and to permit it would make civil service a farce." State v. City of Seattle, 145 Pacific Reporter, 61.

RETURN FROM ALABAMA.

D. K. Duke, wife and baby have returned from a two weeks visit with his parents in Alabama. His father, who has been in very poor health for the past year, is slowly improving. Mr. Duke noticed a number of improvements made in the town in the past five years. The town is lighted with electricity and expects to have the street railway in the near future. Preparations are being made for the county fair which is held now at Alexander City each year. Cotton crops are not so good this year on account of a very dry season. Most of the farmers are busy picking cotton and some have sold their crops at a high price.

Henry C. Stewart of rural route 6 made a trip in an automobile the past week to Urbana attending the fair and looking after his premium horse "Senator Lewis". He will visit friends in Springfield and Decatur on the return trip.

ing attention to domestics' hands bread dough, and every culinary process where they should not be.

Of course, Mr.
Hubbard was making a plea for more mechanical devices—preferably those advertised in a certain magazine—in the kitchen, and Mr. Whittier was thinking of certain hands belonging to dear ones he had loved.
Both the gentlemen were right; there is beauty in useful things and there is much carelessness in even the most carefully conducted kitchens.

The successful housekeeper's hands are trained. You have heard the expression "heavy-handed" and it means awkwardness or a certain determined, go-ahead progress that accomplishes results by sheer strength.

The trained hand has a light, deft, guiding touch and moves about its task with such certain grace that it is pleasant to watch. And, watching them, you will note they are not used for mixing batters, force-meats or any mixture; they hold the spatula, spoon or fork so firmly that it acts in exact conjunction with the guiding arm.

Yes, there is a light and a heavy hand and nowhere is it so apparent as in baking, for mind you, I do not claim the hand must never come in contact with foods. There are times when it must be used so.

Moreover, there are thousands of women who have never seen a mechanical bread mixer and many hundreds who give the final kneading to mechanical-made bread with their hands.

The heavy-handed women shoves her knuckles into the dough and with all the strength of her back and shoulder muscles works the plastic flour, breaking as many air cells as she builds. The deft worker draws the edges of the dough up and over itself with finger tips and presses it lightly back with the base of the palm of the hand and at no time does she put forth any great exertion.

You can see the same thing when the rolling pin is being used. One woman will bring it down on the cookie dough or the biscuit mixture with the same sort of a motion she would use if pounding a nail into a place, and with as resounding a thump. The other touches the cake, pastry or whatever she is working with a light, well-directed aim. She knows she is not trying to beat or press the air and lightness from the mixture, only meaning to shape it to a certain thickness or thinness.

In making pastry the handling of the mixture is as important as in bread kneading. Only as much paste should be put on the board at a time as you will need for one roll or crust. And it should be rolled away from you, as lightly as possible. If pastry "snaps back" as some one has expressed it, hard rolling will not help a mite. You have made it too wet and used too little shortening. Stop rolling it, sift flour over it and dab bits of butter, on then more flour, roll this in, folding the paste over itself and repeating the process several times.

No more snapping, you see, but a rich, flaky crust that fairly melts in your mouth when made into apple pie!

was so deep and permeating that his life and its results have constituted one continued benefaction. I am not sure that I have given clear expression to the thought that is in my heart, but as the instructor of youth I do know that Dr. Black's spirit and thought is what the youth of our land need, for their better development and for the benefit of mankind. What Dr. Black's ideas were as to immortality I do not know, and it makes little difference as to the influence of his work, but we do know that Dr. Black has won immortality, and that in that life he will finish the work so splendidly begun in this world.

At the cemetery with a very simple service, Dr. Black was laid away for his long sleep in a grave massed with beautiful floral emblems testifying to the tender esteem of friends from near and far. The honorary bearers were Dr. Edmund James, president of the University of Illinois; Dr. W. A. Harris, president of Northwestern University; Dr. J. H. Kennerly, dean of the dental department of Washington University in St. Louis; Dr. C. R. Koch and Dr. Edmund Noyes of Northwestern University; Dr. Thomas L. Kreider, long associated with the deceased, and Dr. Charles H. Rammelkamp, representing Illinois college.

Flowers and floral emblems were sent in great profusion by friends of Dr. Black from a number of distant cities, and seldom, if ever, has such a display been seen in Jacksonville. The flowers were cared for by Mrs. W. T. Wilson, assisted by Dr. Josephine Milligan. Dr. Grace Dewey, Mrs. James O. Vosseller, Mrs. J. W. Walton and Mrs. John H. Russell. The ushers were W. T. Wilson, Dr. W. B. Young and Dr. W. L. Frank.

AYERS NATIONAL BANK SETS NEW DEPOSIT RECORD

Two and a Half Million Mark Was Passed Friday—Huge Sum Reflects Grain Movement.

The movement of grain is reflected in bank balances and clearings, just as is true of other large transactions. There has been so much delay locally this year in threshing work that money has not come in as rapidly to the banks from the grain movement as would normally be true with a large crop. At the close of business Friday afternoon the books of the Ayers National bank showed the largest amount of deposits in the history of the institution. The day's showing was considered remarkable from the fact that the mark of two and one-half millions of deposits was placed well in the rear. While the people of this locality have been much impressed with the size of the bank and its large facilities for doing business, probably very few realize that there are not more than seven banks in the state of Illinois outside of Chicago with deposits equal to that of the Ayers National. Springfield does not have a bank of this size and the same is true of a number of Illinois cities with a much larger population than Jacksonville.

VOTERS BEWARE!

Under the agitation worked up by the farseeing, and confessedly "wet" the voters of this city are called to the polls, Sept. 21, to vote down the commission form of city government and re-enstate the old form; the claim is that it would be cheaper when the underlying motion no doubt is to get, if possible, a council favorable to licensed saloons which if allowed would cost the patrons many thousands of dollars; and disgrace our fair city with misdeeds of very foul order. The liquor element never tire in their sinister plans to outwit those who oppose disgrace of every kind. Let the voters put a veto on all their schemes by casting an emphatic vote of no against the overthrow of the present city government.

Frank Smith of Chapin paid the city a visit yesterday.

LABOR DAY CELEBRATION PROMISES TO BE GREAT

Most Business Houses to Close at Noon—Big Preparations for Burgoo Soup.

Preparations are practically complete for the Labor Day celebration to be given at Nichols park Monday. Secretary Weber of the chamber of commerce has been co-operating with the Trades Assembly committee in making the arrangements for the celebration and the indications are that a record crowd will be in attendance. Congressman Rainey will make an address at 2 o'clock in the afternoon and the whole program arranged promises to be one of great interest.

Burgoo soup is to be a feature of the day, and Richard Leake of Jcy Prairie will be the chief chef and will have a number of assistants. The soup is to be made in such quantities that Mr. Leake must begin his work Sunday afternoon and the soup will be in the making all of Sunday night and be ready by noon Monday. Rural route carriers have been co-operating with the arrangements and have brought in liberal gifts from farmers along the routes. Two hundred and fifty chickens have been secured for the soup, and this measure gives some idea of the other ingredients to be used. Most of the stores have posted notices that they will close at noon, and the banks and barber shops will be closed all day. Favorable weather is all that is needed to make the celebration a great success.
